What Does an Advocacy Team Leader Do?

- Recruits and develops relationships with advocacy members from within their region, keeping them informed, encouraged, and engaged in advocacy.
- Develops relationships with local legislators and other key policymakers educating them about the impact of policy decisions on individuals with developmental disabilities.
- Assists members in developing personal relationships with their policymakers and supports them in sharing their personal story as it relates to advocacy issues.
- Organizes regional advocacy activities, such as, legislative visits, roundtables, etc.

Who Should Apply?

Applicants should be a resident of the region for which they are applying and have:

- effective verbal and written communication skills
- strong organizational and presentation skills
- proficiency in Microsoft Word and Excel
- knowledge of the developmental disabilities service delivery system
- reliable transportation (travel required for meetings)
- an unwavering belief that ALL people with disabilities, regardless of the severity of the disability, can and should live in their own home in the community with appropriate supports
- an unwavering belief that people with disabilities should not be segregated

Preference will be given to applicants who:

- have been an active member of the Council's grassroots advocacy network(s)
- are an individual with a developmental disability or a parent/family member of someone with a developmental disability
- experience working/advocating with the legislature
