

Steps to Consider When Selecting a Service Provider

- Talk to other self-advocates or family members who are using the services you are interested in. Ask what works and what does not work.
- Obtain a current Region 8 Resource Directory of Services for People with Developmental Disabilities.
- Contact the Office for Citizens with Developmental Disabilities (OCDD) or Families Helping Families to obtain a complete and current list of services providers.
- Select at least 2 or 3 providers to interview.
- Review the sample interview questions in this brochure and chose the questions most important to you.
- Make a list on the “I want, I need” panel of this brochure of the things that are most important about how you wish to be assisted. Say as clearly as possible what is necessary to meet your needs.
- If you need help during the interview, contact Families Helping Families. If you have a case manager, request help from your case manager.
- Interview the service providers using the interview questions and the “I want, I need” list.
- Choose a provider that you feel would best meet you and your families’ needs.
- Notify your case manager or whoever recommended you choose a service provider of your choice.
