

Hear Presidential Candidates' Positions on Disability Issues

Join thousands of individuals across the country by registering to watch the National Forum on Disability Issues web-streamed LIVE this Friday, September 28th, 1:30 - 4:30 p.m. central standard time (CST).

This is the only national event with representatives from President Barack Obama's and former Massachusetts Gov. Mitt Romney's campaigns presenting their candidate's policy positions on disability issues. Edward M. "Ted" Kennedy, Jr., and Rep. Cathy McMorris Rodgers (R-WA) are speaking on behalf of their respective parties. (see full press release).

Over 80 disability and aging organizations came together to sponsor this non-partisan forum. In-person registration is full with over 500 individuals registered to attend the event live in Columbus, Ohio.
