

Your Input on Louisiana Rehabilitation Services is Needed

December 7, 2017

Every three years, Louisiana Rehabilitation Services (LRS) is required to perform an assessment of the needs of current and former recipients of its services. If you, your son/daughter, or someone for whom you advocate is a current or former recipient of services from LRS or student of transition age (14+), consider taking advantage of this opportunity to provide comments to LRS on how it may better reach people with disabilities and address their employment needs by completing this Needs Assessment today.
