

Information Alert #10

New LaCAN Leaders in Region 2 & 4

September 4, 2020

We are pleased to announce our newest leaders to the LaCAN team!

Region 2

Tommy Comeaux serves as the new LaCAN leader for Region 2 (Ascension, East Baton Rouge, East Feliciana, Iberville, Pointe Coupee, West Baton Rouge and West Feliciana Parishes). Tommy is a Baton Rouge native and the father of five wonderful daughters, an amazing son and thirteen grandchildren. Tommy's son, Marcus, is 35 years old and was diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy as a child. Tommy's journey with his son was a major reason he became involved with LaCAN. Tommy hopes that his personal experiences, passion and previous experience as a journalist will help him continue Region 2's advocacy efforts and help LaCAN members advocate the supports and services they need.

Region 4

Kristie Curtis serves as the new LaCAN leader for Region 4 (Acadia, Evangeline, Iberia, Lafayette, St. Landry, St. Martin and Vermilion Parishes). Kristie is the mother of three amazing young men - Bryson, Ayden and Chris. Kristie also serves as the Early Steps Community Outreach Specialist for Families Helping Families of Acadiana. Kristie is an experienced advocate eager to use her personal experiences as a parent as well as her professional experiences to help educate, guide and support LaCAN members in their efforts to advocate for systems change.

Join us in welcoming Tommy and Kristie to the team! Feel free to contact Tommy in Region 2 and Kristie in Region 4 to share your personal story or to find out how to get more involved in LaCAN.
