

Public Comment Sought on Council's FFY 2022 - 2026 Five-Year Plan

October 26, 2020

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council (Council) adopted its Five-Year Plan for Federal Fiscal Years 2022 – 2026 at the Council's quarterly meeting on October 22, 2020. Newly established goals and objectives will be implemented October 1, 2022 through September 30, 2026. Throughout the duration of this plan the Council will concentrate its efforts on the following three (3) goals designed to improve the lives of individuals with developmental disabilities:

1. Self-Advocacy and Advocacy Leadership
2. Community Living and Supports
3. Education and Employment

Each goal addresses objectives to be achieved including matters related to health and housing of individuals with developmental disabilities. Please note this document does not currently list activities to be implemented. The Council will determine these activities when developing its FY 2022 Action Plan.

Comments on the FFY 2022 – 2026 Five-Year Plan may be sent to Courtney Ryland at Courtney.Ryland2@la.gov and will be received until 4:30 PM on Thursday, December 10, 2020. Comments submitted will be reviewed by the Council during their quarterly meeting in January 2021.
