

Council Seeking Applicants for Executive Director

November 12, 2020

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council (Council) is seeking a passionate and creative Executive Director who demonstrates a strong understanding of both the history of the disability service delivery system and the work that still lies ahead to increase independence, self-determination, productivity, integration, and inclusion for Louisianans with developmental disabilities.

The Council's Executive Director is responsible for the strategic leadership and implementation of all functional activities of the Council to accomplish advocacy, capacity building and systemic change in Louisiana. Specifically, the incumbent is responsible for administering statewide operations of the Council and assumes signature authority over all contracts, budget, staff, federal reporting, and any other charge issued by federal and state authorities.
