

Emergency Preparedness and Disability Awareness Trainings Starting Tomorrow

April 28, 2021

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council has contracted with Niagara University to offer training sessions on Emergency Preparedness and Disability Awareness. The intent of this initiative is to build the capacity of individuals with developmental disabilities and their caregivers to prepare for, respond to, and recover from emergencies and natural disasters.

Virtual training sessions are being conducted for Emergency Management Professionals and the public regarding emergency management understanding, implementing inclusive planning, and active participation of individuals with disabilities and/or their caregivers throughout all preparedness and response processes.

Niagara University is hosting an introductory session to this project on April 29th and May 5th. The Council's website will be updated as training events that are offered to the public are scheduled.
