The Council Wants Your Story!

June 18, 2021

Do you know someone interested in sharing their story with the Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council? If so, this is the perfect opportunity!

Fully Included is a new video series from the Council set to educate and empower self-advocates, family advocates and community stakeholders across the state on the importance of inclusion of the disability community in aspects of everyday life. We are looking for self-advocates, parent advocates, family members, caregivers, and professionals across Louisiana who would like share their story on the following topics:

- Employment
- Community Stakeholders
- Advocating for Medicaid Waivers
- Direct Support Professionals
