

Upcoming Community Training Event on Interactions with First Responders

July 29, 2021

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council has contracted with Interaction Advisory Group (IAG) to conduct skill-building training activities for first responders to increase their understanding of safe, fair and appropriate tactics when encountering individuals with developmental disabilities. As part of this initiative, IAG is offering virtual community training sessions for individuals with disabilities, their families and the public to provide guidance on how to interact with first responders in emergencies as well as related information about local resources and events.

The next training session will be held Thursday, August 5th, from 6 - 7:30 PM. For more information about the upcoming training, please see the flyer below. Those interested in attending can register by emailing info@InteractionAdvisoryGroup.com.

All future trainings will be posted on the Council's website.
