

LA Disability Resources Website Now Available

September 29, 2021

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council is pleased to announce the launch of ladisabilityresources.com. The Council collaborated with [Trach Mommas of LA](http://Trach Mommas of LA) (TMOL) to sponsor the creation of this accessible website to serve as an information resource for individuals with developmental disabilities and their families to access during times of both personal emergencies and/or natural disasters.

The Council and TMOL want to ensure this newly created website meets your needs. Please click here to participate in a user survey and share your feedback. You can also send your feedback and content suggestions directly to TMOL via their contact information below.

The Council has also made funding available to assist TMOL in their ongoing work to coordinate and support rapid disaster response for Louisianans with developmental disabilities and their families. If you have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic or one of the numerous natural disasters our state has faced, contact TMOL to see if they can help!
