Free Virtual Community Development & Safety Training Event

February 11, 2022

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council has partnered with Interaction Advisory Group \(IAG\) to conduct skill-building training activities for first responders to increase their understanding of safe, fair and appropriate tactics when encountering individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

As part of this initiative, IAG is offering virtual community training sessions for individuals with disabilities, their families and the general public. Topics include:

- Safe interactions with first responders
- Developing Safety Action Plans and
- Information about local resources and events

The next training session will be held Thursday, February 24th, from 5:30 - 7:00 PM. For more information about the upcoming training, please see the flyer below. To register, email:
