Recruiting Strong Advocates for DD Council

April 25, 2022

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council is currently recruiting applicants STATEWIDE to fill multiple membership vacancies.

Applicants must be one of the following:

- An individual with a developmental disability;
- A parent or guardian of a child with a developmental disability; or
- The immediate relative or guardian of an adult with an intellectual developmental disability who cannot advocate for themselves.
- A representative of a local and non-governmental, private non-profit group concerned with services for individuals with developmental disabilities. (Employees of private agencies with a contractual relationship with the Council are not eligible for Council membership.)

To apply for Council membership, please click here. The deadline for receiving applications in order to be considered for one of the positions is May 25, 2022. Although you may complete and submit your application electronically, if you choose to download and mail in your application, it must be received no later than May 25, 2022.

Are you or someone you know interested in improving the system of supports for people with developmental disabilities and their families? Do you support the self-determination, independence, productivity and full inclusion of people with developmental disabilities in all facets of community life? If so, please consider submitting an application for membership on the La. Developmental Disabilities Council.

Council members are appointed by the Governor and generally serve four-year terms. Whenever there is a vacancy, a membership committee of the Council reviews all the applications received throughout the year and makes recommendations to the full Council for approval. Names are then submitted to the Governor for his consideration. The Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act includes criteria for all states to follow in selecting their DD Council's membership (including the definition of developmental disabilities) and the Louisiana Council takes care to ensure our membership is in compliance with our federal law.

Interested persons should complete the application for membership prior to the deadline. More information about the Council can be found on our website.
