

SEAP Recruiting New Members Apply Today

March 28, 2023

The Special Education Advisory Panel (SEAP) is currently accepting applications for new membership. SEAP advises and assists the Louisiana Department of Education (LDOE) with the provision of free and appropriate public education (FAPE) for students with disabilities and provides guidance on special education programs and services.

SEAP is seeking to fill the following seven (7) vacancies:

- A parent of a child with a disability (birth to 26)
- An individual with a disability
- A higher education institution representative who prepares special educators or service providers
- A state juvenile corrections or adult corrections agency representative
- A private school representative
- A teacher
- An administrator of a program for students with disabilities.

Those interested in serving on SEAP and would like to be considered for membership can fill out the application here. Once completed, please email the application to specialeducation@la.gov by April 14, 2023.
