

Your Next Best Hire!'s Employment Webinar Series

July 13, 2023

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council is excited to announce this year's launch of Your Next Best Hire!: A Five-Part Webinar Series

This webinar series is an effort by the Council's Working Together Campaign to bring focus on recruiting, hiring, and retaining employees with disabilities. The series will also serve as a step-by-step guide of what employers need to know and do to make disability a part of their diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) hiring process.

The series consists of five (5) webinars that will bring together experts from agencies and companies; employees with disabilities; and other stakeholders who will share best practices for building a diverse workforce.

Calendar of Webinars:

- June 21: *Building DEI in the Workplace: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) are important topics to consider when hiring and building a workforce. But, what does that mean for employers and hiring professionals?
- July 12: *Getting Started! - Meet agency leaders who will share what resources are available for employers in Louisiana to start building their DEI programs and adding disabilities to their DEI efforts.
- July 25: *The Impact of Inclusive Hiring - Meet employers and hiring professionals who are incorporating disabilities in their DEI practices and what they have learned along the way for best practices.
- August 9: *Benefits for Employers! - Regional offices of LRS provide holistic resources for employers to access recruiters, job coaches, assistive technology, and other must-haves to include people with developmental disabilities in their hiring practices.

- August 23: Recruiting Employees with Disabilities - Programs like Project SEARCH, LSU Paycheck Program, and more are available to employers to partner with and develop a recruiting pipeline. Learn more on how you can get involved with these programs to build a recruiting platform.
