

Upcoming Emergency Preparedness and Disability Awareness Trainings

March 6, 2024

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council has contracted with Niagara University (NU) to educate anyone involved in emergency planning, preparedness, response, and recovery as it pertains to individuals with disabilities and access and functional needs.

NU has tailored a presentation and training that identifies the responsibilities of both emergency management personnel and disability advocates during an emergency. This program will introduce the four modules necessary for proper response:

- Disability Awareness Training
- The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) specific to Emergency Management
- Emergency Plan Content
- Inclusive Planning and Active Participation

Two training opportunities are coming to Alexandria and Baton Rouge. The trainings will be held in-person and are free to attend. Participants have the option to attend the full two day training or a half day training. Not sure which option is best for you?

Two Full Days

9:00 AM – 5:00 PM both days

Who should attend:

- Those active in the disability community and/or working in emergency management.
- There is a requirement to report emergency management participation following the training.

One Half Day

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM on second day

Who should attend:

- Those interested in learning about emergency preparedness and looking to be involved in a capacity that suits your interest and availability
- No requirement to report participation in the emergency management training
