People First of Louisiana 2024 Annual Conference

May 23, 2024

People First will hold their annual training on Thursday, June 13. This year's conference will feature two exciting keynote speakers who are both self-advocates and motivational speakers.

Mark Hublar will discuss "Everyone Has a Story: The Power of Determination and Storytelling" which includes:

- How determination plays a crucial role in overcoming personal and social challenges.
- Real-life examples of how embracing one's story can lead to empowerment and change.
- Sharing personal stories and key insights on overcoming barriers through determination.

and

Katherine Klimitas will provide training on "Find Your Something" that will:

- Challenge the audience to imagine what the world would look like if everyone was able to live up to their full potential.
- Motivate the audience to try new things, set personal goals, and commit to them.
