

Council Seeking Applicants for Deputy Director

May 14, 2024

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council (Council) is seeking a passionate and creative Deputy Director who demonstrates a strong understanding of both the history of the disability service delivery system and the work that still lies ahead to increase independence, self-determination, productivity, integration, and inclusion for Louisianans with developmental disabilities.

The Council's Deputy Director is responsible for assisting the Executive Director with strategic leadership and implementation of all functional activities of the Council to accomplish advocacy, capacity building and systemic change in Louisiana. Specifically, the incumbent is responsible for assisting with administering statewide operations of the Council and manages all administrative duties involved in the day-to-day and long-term operations of the Council, including fiscal, contractual, and operational matters.

Interested applicants can click here for more information and to apply. The position will be open for applications until May 23, 2024.

As with all Council vacancies, people with disabilities and family members of people with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
