Resident and Family Focus Group: ICF/DD Rate Study

November 18, 2024

The Louisiana Department of Health is working with Myers and Stauffer LC to complete a rate study for how intermediate care facilities for individuals with developmental disabilities (ICF/DD) are paid. They are seeking feedback from persons living in ICF/DD facilities and their families to help inform this rate study.

The focus group meeting will be held Monday, November 25th at 1:30 PM. More information about the focus group can be found in the flyer below.

Announcing Upcoming Engagement Session

Louisiana Intermediate Care Facilities for the Developmentally Disabled (ICF/DD)

Monday, November 25, 2024

1:30 pm | (UTC-05:00) Central Time (US & Canada) | 1.0 hr

Focus Group Session Focused on the Following Topics:

- LDH is working with Myers and Stauffer LC to complete a rate study for how ICF/DD facilities are paid. We are seeking feedback from persons living in ICF/DD facilities and their families to help inform this rate study. We are inviting you to participate in a conversation to discuss the following questions:
 - What services provided by the ICF/DD facility are most helpful in supporting you or your family member?
 - Are there services or activities that you would like to be able to get in the ICF/DD facility that you are not able to get now?
 - What changes or improvements would you suggest for the ICF/DD facilities?
 - Are you aware of any needs for funding for the ICF/DD facilities that would improve services for you or your family members?
 - Is there any other information you would like to share?
