Navigating the System Co-Occurring Disorders Training Opportunity

March 12, 2025

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council has partnered with The Arc of Louisiana to host a series of statewide training opportunities to learn about navigating Louisiana's complex service delivery system. Trainings are open to all, but individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) and their families are encouraged to attend. Attendees will learn about:

- Addressing existing barriers,
- Identifying service gaps, and
- Identifying inadequacies in both the I/DD and Behavioral Health service systems

Take advantage of this incredible opportunity to learn more about the systems and supports available for individuals with I/DD and Behavioral Health needs.

Details about our next training in Southwest Louisiana can be found below. To register for this free training, scan the QR code in the flyer below or click here. For questions or more information about the training, please contact Ashley McReynolds at amcreynolds@thearcla.org.
