People First of Louisiana Annual Training

May 23, 2023

People First will hold their annual training on June 19th themed: “How Self-Determination and Risk Promote Inclusion”. Russell Lehmann, an award winning motivational speaker, author, and self-advocate will be keynote speaker. Russell has years of experience in training in advocacy and self-determination for self-advocates, family members, providers, employers, and the general public.

Attendees will learn:

- That all contributions to society are valuable and should be appreciated as such.
- That one individual’s accomplishments may look different than another person’s accomplishments and that’s ok
- How personal experience of those with disabilities can create inclusive practices.
- That being included oftentimes does not equate to one feeling included.
