

ACL Updated Organizational Chart – Text Version (As of 1 April 2025)

The U.S. Administration for Community Living (ACL) was led by the Administrator, who also serves as the Assistant Secretary for Aging. The Administrator is directly supported by the Principal Deputy Administrator, and the Chief of Staff. This box is shaded in gray indicated it's elimination.

The following boxes in gray indicate elimination that used to report to the Administrator:

- Center for Management and Budget, which includes four offices:
 - Office of Budget and Finance
 - Office of Grants Management
 - Office of Administration and Personnel
 - Office of Information Resources Management
- Center for Policy and Evaluation, which includes two offices:
 - Office of Policy Analysis and Development
 - Office of Performance and Evaluation
- Center for Regional Operations, which includes ten regional offices
- Office of External Affairs

The following boxes are in white indicating their preservation in agencies unknown at this time.

- The Administration on Disabilities is headed by a Commissioner who also oversees the following offices:
 - Office of Intellectual and Developmental Disability Programs
 - Office of Independent Living Programs
 - Office of Disability Services Innovation
- Administration on Aging, which includes four offices:
 - Office of Supportive and Caregiver Services
 - Office of Nutrition and Health Promotion Programs
 - Office of Elder Justice and Adult Protective Services
 - Office of American Indian, Alaskan Native and Native Hawaiian Programs
- Center for Innovation and Partnership, which includes three offices:
 - Office of Interagency Innovation
 - Office of Network Advancement
 - Office of Healthcare Information and Counseling
- National Institute on Disability, Independent Living, and Rehabilitation Research is headed by a Director, which includes two offices:
 - Office of Research Administration
 - Office of Research Sciences