ENHANCED FINANCIAL LITERACY: MANAGING MONEY MADE SIMPLE

August 5, 2025
10 to 11:30 am

This interactive session is designed to empower individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) with practical financial skills. Participants will learn the basics of budgeting, saving, and banking through accessible activities and resources. Whether it's creating a simple budget, setting savings goals, or understanding how to use a bank account, this workshop provides the tools needed to build financial confidence and independence. Join us to gain knowledge, participate in hands-on activities, and take-home user-friendly resources to support your financial journey.

NAVIGATING WAIVERS: SERVICES AND ACCESSING SUPPORT

August 5, 2025
1 to 2:30 pm

As part of the Transition to Adulthood Workshop Series, this interactive session will provide individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) and their families with essential information about waivers and how they can support independent living. Participants will learn practical tips for navigating waiver programs, accessing available services, and advocating for their needs. Through real-life scenarios, hands-on activities, and guidance, attendees will gain confidence in utilizing waivers to enhance their quality of life. Join us for this engaging workshop and take home easy-to-understand resources to support your transition to adulthood!
