The Council is Hiring!

September 13, 2024

The Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council is seeking a new Program Monitor! This position is responsible for coordinating portions of the Council's Planning and Public Information Program. The Program Monitor coordinates all public policy advocacy networks and related initiatives of the Council to promote the self-determination, independence, integration, productivity and inclusion of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Major duties of this position include:

- Coordinating, assisting and monitoring the Council's public policy advocacy and family support initiatives (i.e., LaCAN, Families Helping Families) and
- Planning and coordinating advocacy and public awareness events.

This is a classified State Civil Service position. Interested applicants must apply through the State Civil Service website by September 20, 2024. View the position announcement HERE for more information. If you need assistance with the application process or have additional questions, please contact Deanda Thymes at Deanda.Thymes@la.gov or 225-342-6477.

As with all Council vacancies, people with disabilities and family members of people with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
